There are thousands of homes where overwork has led to worrying, fretting and despondency, that need only Paine's celery compound to banish the unhealthy atmosphere and make things bright and cheerful again.

It is the only spring remedy universally prescribed by physicians. It makes people well by giving them a hearty appetite and a relish for their food. Hard worked men and women, the nervous, weak and debilitated, get new strength, fresh nervous energy and a purer, more vigorous blood supply from Paine's celery compound.

This most valuable nerve and brain invigorator and restorer practically demonstrates the lifelong conviction of its eminent discoverer, Professor Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth College. Professor Phelps was for a long time convinced that sound nutrition was the keystone of firm health, and that where there were signs of poorly nourished nerve tissues, and of thin, pale colored blood, some means must be devised to supply these deficiencies briskly and rapidly. Professor Phelps prepared Paine's celery compound on this basis. It has proved an invigorator, strengthener and a great spring purifier, such as the world has never enjoyed before our day.

To-morrow, or next day, or the day after is not soon enough to look about getting rid of weakness or disease. Take Paine's celery compound to-day. There is no time equal to these early spring days for throwing off poor health. There are few persons who do not need to take a spring remedy.

Many not downright sick, but tired or ailing, would be immensely benefited by taking Paine's celery compound, especially at this particularly favorable season of the year.

This great compound will banish that tired feeling, cleanse the blood and regulate the nerves.

WILD ENTHUSIASM

In the New York Republican State Convention Tuesday.

Tremendous Ovation for Morton and Only Slight Outbursts for McKinley.

The Delegates Instructed for Morton and a Sound Platform Adopted.

NEW YORK, March 24. The hall was packed when at 7.45 P. M. the chairman called the Republican State convention to order. The report of the committee on credentials was adopted. There were contests in six districts in this city. The delegates seated were all Platt men with the exception of those from two districts, who belonged to the Brookfield faction. The committee on permanent organization presented their report, naming Congressman George N. Southwick for permanent chairman and naming other permanent officers.

The nomination of Mr. Southwick was greeted with great applause by the Albany contingent, but this was nothing to the outburst which followed a minute later when ex Senator Platt came down the aisle to take a seat with the Tioga delegation.

The reading of the report of the committee was suspended while the band played "Hail to the Chief." Mr. Lauterbach came in next and there was more cheering. Finally the secretary was allowed to finish the reading of the report of the committee and it was adopted. Mr. Southwick was escorted to the platform and received an ovation.

A point against McKinley made by Mr. Southwick at the opening of his speech, when he declared that no Republican had any monopoly of the principle of protection was enthusiastically applauded. Mr. Platt nodded his head in approval and clapped his hands. The next outburst of applause was when the speaker mentioned the McKinley law. The Ohio statesman had some friends in the hall and they made all the noise they could.

The demonstration was not very formidable where there were hisses in some parts of the hall to counteract it. The Morton men had another chance when Mr. Southwick reached the financial question. When Blaine was named a little later on the Morton and McKinley men cheered together. The argumentative passages in the address were listened to with the closest attention.

When the concluding portion of the speech was reached in which the merits of Gov. Morton were set forth every sentence was punctuated with applause. The declaration that no man whose reputation rests on a single idea is fitted to be President was another point against McKinley which the audience heartily approved.

Congressman Southwick spoke forty minutes and when he concluded the crowd begged him to go on. The band played "America," after which Chairman Aldridge, of the committee on nominations, presented the names of Gen. Tracy and L. H. Butler for electors at large, Messrs. Platt, Miller, Depew, Lauterbach, for delegates-at-large, Messrs. Fish, Babcock, Witherbee and McMillin for alternates-at-large. Before Mr. Aldrich had finished reading the report he was interrupted by ex Supervisor Thomas Fitchie, of Brooklyn, who refused to agree to the action of the committee in the afternoon.

The chairman refused to yield the floor. As soon as he had resumed his seat, Mr. Fitchie again addressed the chair. The chairman said there could be no minority report in this instance.

"Then make it what you please," said Mr. Fitchie. "Call it an amendment. I move an amendment to the report of the committee on nominations."

The amendment presented was as follows:

"The undersigned minority of the committee on nominations respectfully disagrees with the report of the majority in the choice of delegates at large to the Republican national convention at St Louis.

"Messrs. Chauncey M. Depew and Warner Miller are, it is understood, willing to cast the votes in the national convention in accordance with the sentiment of their State. It is therefore desirable that their associates shall be men of kindred spirit and the minority of the committee on nominations respectfully presents as the other two delegates Hon. Edgar S. Jewett, of Buffalo, and Gen. Samuel Thomas, of New York, with the recommendation that, if it appears after the first ballot that Hon. Levi P. Morton cannot be the choice of the national convention, the delegates at large from this State use all honorable means to promote the cause of Wm. McKinley, of Ohio."

This was signed "Thomas Fitchie, for the minority of the committee on nominations."

During the excitement and tumult following the introduction of the amendment some one in the orchestra balcony swung a small banner over the railing on which was inscribed "McKinley, Prosperity Advance Agent." Then a Morton banner was thrown out alongside of it. In all parts of the upper galleries Morton banners appeared and tremendous cheering followed. The McKinleyites were completely drowned out. Nothing could stop the wave of Morton enthusiasm. Delegates and spectators stood upon the seats and shouted and handkerchiefs and hats were tossed in the air.

For over five minutes the applause was continued. Every few seconds it would break out afresh in different parts of the hall. The chairman repeatedly tried to restore order, but no attention was paid to him. Morton banners were passed up to the platform and the crowd cheered again. It seemed impossible to get the convention in order.

Finally the confusion subsided and the voting on the amendment to the committee report was begun. The roll was called by assembly districts until Erie county was reached. The delegates from that county demanded an individual roll call and each man was allowed to respond to his name. The same course was pursued in the case of Jefferson and Kings counties.

The next break was in New York county, where the first district voted for the amendment followed by several others. When Abraham Gruber announced the vote of his district he shouted, "We s and by Tom Platt and Ed. Lauterbach."

When Ontario was called Senator Raines said: "Ontario resents the insult to her governor and casts seven votes against the amendment." Mr. Platt was not present to cast Tioga's vote, having left the hall at the conclusion of Chairman Southwick's speech. The only break from Niagara to Yates was in Westchester county.

The result of the ballot was announced by Secretary Kenyon as follows: For the amendment, 105; against, 633.

The announcement was greeted with general applause, the McKinley men cheering because they got so many votes and the Morton men because they had more than 6 times as many as the opposition. The majority report of the committee on nominations was adopted by acclamation. Senator Lexow, chairman of the committee on resolutions, presented the platform, moving the previous question on its adoption. There was no objection to the previous question being ordered and the report was unanimously adopted. The following is

The Platform:

The Republicans of New York in convention assembled again declare firm and unyielding adherence to the doctrine of protection to American industries, protection to the products of the American farm, protection to American labor. We are in favor of a tariff, which, while providing income sufficient to meet the expenses of the government honestly and economically administered, at the same time secures home labor and home capital from unequal foreign competition. We believe in reciprocity with other nations which shall give our producers and manufacturers opportunity to dispose of their surplus products and obtain articles we desire from those countries on the most advantageous terms.

Agitation for free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 seriously disturbs all industrial interests and calls for a clear statement of the Republican party's attitude on this question to the end that the trade of this country at home and abroad may again be placed upon a sound and stable foundation. We recognize in the movement for the free coinage of silver an attempt to degrade the long established standard of our monetary system, hence a blow to the public and private credit at once costly to the national government and harmful to our domestic and foreign commerce.

Until there is a prospect of international agreement as to silver coinage, while gold remains the standard of the United States and of the civilized world, the Republican party of New York declares itself in favor of a firm and honorable maintenance of that standard. We believe in a business administration of the government by business men, on business principles, for the benefit of the suffering business interests of this great people.

For nearly four years the material progress of the nation has been blocked, all branches of trade have suffered and workmen have been deprived of reasonable and living wages by the utter lack of business common sense among our Democratic rulers. It is the duty and privilege of the Republican party to promptly mend this unhappy state of affairs by nominating and electing a business man for the Presidency, and we ask the aid of thoughtful Republicans everywhere in this great and meritorious work. On this platform we present Gov. Levi Parsons Morton as New York's Republican candidate for President.

He is in every way fit for the high honor; he is peculiarly the man for the hour. He has been a business man with business men. He would prove a business President for the good of all interests of the people. He has been Representative in Congress, minister to France, Vice President of the United States, Governor of New York, and each of these positions he filled with ability which has never been surpassed, with lasting credit to himself and great benefit to his State and country.

Gov. Morton's long and honorable public service, his spotless character, his great executive ability, his devotion to his party and its principles eminently fit him for the Presidency and entitle him to our hearty and enthusiastic support. Therefore we instruct our delegates to the St Louis convention to present him as our candidate for President and urge upon them to use every honorable means to secure his nomination.

The roll was called by Congressional districts and Presidential electors were named. The State committee was authorized to fill all vacancies among the delegates, alternates and electors. Then, to the surprise of many expecting speeches from ex-Senator Fassett, Edward Lauterbach and others, a motion to adjourn was suddenly adopted and the convention was over, adjourning sine die at 9.47 P. M.

Discussion of Presidential Situation.

After adjournment there was much discussion of the action of the McKinley men and its probable effect upon the Presidential situation. Chairman Hackett of the State committee and Congressman Payne said the effect of the opposition to the Governor would be to make his friends more enthusiastic.

Ex-Senator Fassett said he did not regard the demonstration made by the McKinley men as particularly significant. He did not think the action of the McKinley men would have any particular effect in other States.

Congressman Southwick said: "The action of McKinley's friends solidified the Morton following and rendered the lukewarm supporters of the Governor red-hot for him."

Edward Lauterbach said: "The Morton delegation was made more Mortonized than ever by to-night's action and the delegation from this State will be absolutely solid for the governor."

Speaker Fish of the State assembly said: "I regard the action of the convention to-night as a direct instruction to the New York delegates to vote against Mr. McKinley at all stages. The base deception practiced by certain men in Kings toward the Governor and the Republican organization was beyond comparison."

GEN GEORGE L. BEALE

Will Probably be Maine Man on Board of Managers of Soldiers' Homes.

WASHINGTON, March 24. Nine Republican members of the House Military Committee held a caucus this morning to select successors to four members of the board of managers of the National Soldiers' Homes whose terms expire this year. These are Messrs. Franklin of Connecticut, Fessenden, of Maine; Steele, of Indiana, and Black, of Illinois. The sentiment developed at the caucus was unfavorable to Gen. Franklin's reappointment, but no conclusive action was taken with reference to his case or those of his three associates.

There was considerable discussion as to the successor of ex Congressman Black.

For this place there are two candidates, both strongly backed. One is ex-Congressman Thomas J. Henderson, of Illinois, and the other Congressman D. B. Henderson, of Iowa, the present chairman of the House Judiciary Committee.

For Mr. Fessenden's place the Maine delegation presented the name of Gen George L. Beale, of that State, to which there was no opposition. Nor will there be, it is understood, any opposition to the re-appointment of Mr. Steele, who is one of the members of the House from Indiana.

Another caucus will be held tomorrow morning at which time a definite conclusion, it is thought, will be reached.

A GOOD THING FOR THE PEOPLE.

There are thousands of people, who, while not exactly sick, are out of order or ailing in some way. They don't feel well and can't understand what the trouble is. You can learn exactly what ails you, without its costing anything, by writing a letter to the noted and successful specialist, Dr. Greene, of 34 Temple Place, Boston, Mass., and telling him just how you feel. He will answer it, explaining every symptom in your case and telling just what to do to get well. He gives most careful attention to every letter, and makes his explanations so clear that you understand exactly what the matter is, and how to cure it. And all this costs you nothing.

He makes a specialty of treating patients through letter correspondence, and this method has proved wonderfully successful. His vast experience enables him to understand from reading your symptoms, the exact nature of your complaint. He is the discoverer of that wonderful remedy, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, the best medicine in the world, and he has discovered many other valuable remedies. People living at a distance from the city will at once see the great advantage of this system of consultation and treatment by letter correspondence. No long journey, and no doctor's fees. Write him and it will doubtless be the means of your getting strong and well.

EXPECT TO AGREE.

On Cuban Resolutions Satisfactory to Both Houses.

Managers on Part of Senate and House Discussing the Subject.

Believe They Can Remove the Objectionable Features and Agree.

WASHINGTON, March 24. The managers on the part of the two houses in charge of the Cuban resolutions failed to agree this afternoon and adjourned to meet to-morrow at two o'clock.

Many propositions were discussed. It was apparent that neither house will adopt the text in toto of the other. The opinion is expressed that the Senate conferees will agree to the first and second clauses of the House resolutions, striking out the third clause, which refers to possible intervention by the government of the United States to protect the legitimate interests of our citizens.

This will remove the objectionable features discussed during the debate in the Senate and it is thought the House will accept the resolutions as so amended.

While the members of the conference adhere to the statement that no conclusion has been approximately reached, they all declare that they will report a conclusion that will be satisfactory to both houses and will be agreed to.

He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to three years in State's prison and fined $1.

When asked if he had anything to say Bradley, who is an American, said, "All I have to say is that I am sorry I have dishonored my country."

AUSTIN, Texas, March 24. The Republican State convention assembled to-night. The credentials committee gave the McKinleyites a black eye by seating Allison delegations from San Antonio and Austin. The Allison men to-night claim they have a chance of nominating all the delegates to the national convention to-morrow.

The McKinley men claim they will elect three of the four delegates. Prominent Allison men are willing to concede them two with no instructions.

IN CONGRESS.

Mr. Mills Delivered a Scorching Speech on Cuba.

Made His Resolution the Subject of a Plea to Aid the Cubans.

House Passed the Senate Bill to Remove Disqualifications of Confederates.

WASHINGTON, March 24. In the Senate to-day the joint resolution introduced yesterday by Mr. Mills (Dem., Texas) looking to the seizure of the island of Cuba by the United States in case the Spanish government shall refuse to grant self government to the Cubans, was taken up and Mr. Mills addressed the Senate in advocacy of it.

Mr. Mills said the United States had never asserted that it had any rights in Ireland, Hungary, Poland or elsewhere in Europe, but it asserted its rights in every solitary acre of land on the western hemisphere. It had there the highest right, the right of self-preservation. The Monroe doctrine, he declared, was as old as humanity. God Almighty was its author for when He made man He placed in him the right to preserve his life and liberty.

Mr. Mills reviewed the declarations of President Jefferson in relation to the Louisiana purchase when the American minister to France was instructed to notify Napoleon if he would not sell that territory to the United States, the United States would ally itself to Great Britain and sweep the French fleets off the ocean, to maintain the right of the United States to the mouth of the Mississippi river notwithstanding that France had a perfect title to it.

The Senate at 5.10 adjourned.

In the House.

The first business of the House to-day was the question of the passage of the Curtiss bill, discussed yesterday, to reduce the number of crimes for which the death penalty may be inflicted. On a vote the result was yeas 170, nays 60, so the bill was passed.

The House bill to increase the penalty for transporting and selling by liquor dealers of liquors under false and spurious brands was taken up, discussed and passed.

The joint resolution restoring to the Mormon church the property and money now in the hands of the receiver and formerly belonging to the church to be used for the payment of the church debts and its charitable objects, was called up by Mr. Broderick (Rep., Kansas) who asked to have substituted for the House measure the joint resolution which had passed the Senate. The property involved is of the value of nearly $300,000.

The Senate bill repealing the law forbidding the appointment of any person as officer in the army who held a commission in the army at the breaking out of the rebellion and who afterwards served in the confederate army was called up by Mr. Hull (Rep., Iowa).

Mr. Boutelle vigorously opposed the passage of the bill. He said it would serve no practical purpose.

The bill was advocated by Messrs. Grosvenor (Rep., Ohio), Pickler (Rep., S. D.), Grow (Rep., Penn.), Walker (Rep., Va.), and Cummings (Dem., N. Y.). The bill passed, Mr. Boutelle alone voting in the negative.

The House then adjourned.

A MARRIED SCOUNDREL

Prominent Man Arrested on Suspicion of Murdering a Girl.

PHILADELPHIA, March 24. The finding of the body of a young and pretty woman at 2,920 Girard avenue last night after she had been dead 24 hours was followed to-day by the arrest of Samuel P. Langdon, president of the United Colliery Company. It is said he is also president of a southern railroad company.

The authorities refuse to make public the exact charge upon which Langdon was arrested but it is understood that he and the young woman, who was Miss Annie McGrath, aged 18, had lived together in the house as man and wife for over a month. Langdon is a man of prominence and 55 years old.

The cause of Miss McGrath's death is not known. A post mortem examination was made this morning by the coroner's physician but he declines to give any particulars.

Bertha Stewart, a colored servant at the dwelling, was arrested today, presumably as a witness. A suspicious part of the affair is the fact that Langdon suddenly disappeared from the dwelling yesterday afternoon. The police surgeon who was called when the body was found declared that the man, who had been in the house all day, could not possibly have been ignorant of her death. The remains were discovered lying on a bed, fully attired, with no evidence pointing to foul play.

The dead girl first met Langdon when the latter employed her as stenographer and typewriter.

Langdon has a wife, son and daughter, said to be living about fourteen miles out of Pittsburg. Langdon after his arrest stated that he went to the house Sunday morning. The girl was taken ill in the afternoon. He had fallen asleep and did not awaken until 11 Monday morning. He thought the girl was sleeping and left the house without disturbing her. That night he stopped at a hotel and this morning was surprised to read in the newspapers of the girl's death.

The father of Miss McGrath is pressman in the employ of the Philadelphia Times.

Where Novices must not Meddle.

ONE half the people remain well or are made ill accordingly as they eat wholesome or unwholesome food.

The danger to the public at once becomes active if unskilled people, or others who are indifferent as to the results, are permitted to manipulate our every day food.

Recently certain baking powder makers entirely without knowledge of the chemical relationships involved or liable to be disturbed attempted to substitute some cheap materials in the preparation of their powder. The baking powder spoiled, of course, and the manufacturers' wagons are busy taking it back, but as some of it had been sold to housekeepers their biscuit and cake were also spoiled, and good flour, sugar, butter and eggs wasted to their great disappointment and vexation.

Although the extra dozens given to them to induce them to continue to offer this brand to their customers may square the grocers for their loss of reputation, the housekeeper cannot be compensated for the loss and annoyance which she has suffered.

Such are the results when novices interfere and unfortunately most of the baking powders are made in this slipshod way.

Nothing of this kind can occur with ROYAL BAKING POWDER. It is not only scientifically made from highly refined and healthful materials, but there is the most careful consideration and study of the hygienic relations to be adjusted and established in the food. The result is a leavening agent with properties that actually add to the wholesomeness of the food, making always without fear of failure the lightest, sweetest, most delicious foods, and whose use is economical.

REED'S STRENGTH

Will Steadily Increase From Now, Says Mr. Manley.

The Augusta Man Writes Gov. Cleaves Regarding Claims for McKinley.

Gives the Number of Delegates Already Selected in Various States.

WASHINGTON, March 24. Hon. J. H. Manley of Maine, secretary of the National Republican Committee, has addressed the following letter to the Governor of Maine in connection with the claims that Governor McKinley, of Ohio has already secured a majority of the delegates to the St. Louis convention.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 24.

To Hon. Henry B. Cleaves, Governor of Maine.

MY DEAR GOVERNOR: Including the elections held today there have been 375 delegates elected to the national Republican convention.

There are 36 contested cases which are not given to any candidate, because it is unfair to assume how these cases will be decided either by the national committee or the convention. Of 3[illegible]5 delegates elected 154 are for McKinley, providing you concede to him 26 from Indiana and 18 from Minnesota. Sixty four delegates are elected for Governor Morton, 19 for Senator Quay, 10 for Senator Cullom, 44 for Senator Allison, 48 for Mr. Reed.

Mr. Reed's strength from now until the convention will steadily increase.

I am sincerely yours,
J. H. MANLEY.

Nerve

Excitement, overwork and worry are ruining the health of thousands of women. Pure Blood is required to feed the nerves, a good appetite and digestive strength are demanded to keep the body strong and vigorous and to restore the exhausted energies there must be sound and refreshing

Sleep

By its power to respond to all these needs Hood's Sarsaparilla has proved itself the greatest friend of women. Thousands write that they have been given health and strength by its use. It is the great blood purifier, and consequently the true nerve tonic.

"I feel that I should be wanting in common gratitude should I fail to tell the benefit my wife has derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla. She became seriously ill from running ulcers, caused by poorness of and was strongly advised by a friend to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. She said it had cured her and would no doubt cure my wife. So we tried it, and to say that its effect is wonderful, is only using a mild expression. It appears to be building up a new constitution for her; and, as we are a family of eleven, there are eleven of us rejoicing at the result.

"If the foregoing induces only one person, suffering in the same manner, to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, I shall feel more than rewarded." ELIJAH PACKER, 585 Monroe Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

At Eleven O clock A M

For the purpose of [illegible] six [illegible] dates for electors of President and Vice President of the United States and four [illegible] at large and [illegible] to attend the National Republican Convention to [illegible] at St Louis Missouri [illegible] transacting [illegible] come before it.

J H MANLEY Chairman

BYRON BOYD Secretary

[illegible]

J H MANLEY Chairman

FOURTH Congressional District REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

[illegible]

To night's Meeting

[illegible] City Hall this evening at half past seven [illegible] for the purpose of organizing a [illegible] Club [illegible] the meeting to-night [illegible]

Bayard's Misrepresentation

One of the [illegible] speeches delivered in the House [illegible] was that of Congressman [illegible] He handled the Ambassador without gloves [illegible]

[illegible] Mr Speaker [illegible] (Applause) [illegible] $200,000,000 [illegible] navy big enough at least to go [illegible] (Laughter) If we [illegible] (Applause)

[illegible] protection took the Treasury of the United States for twenty five successive [illegible] there never was a deficiency until the black raven of free trade perched upon our treasury door and [illegible] "Surplus surplus never, never more" (Applause and laughter)

No Mr Speaker our Ambassador to Great Britain has not only violated the regulations of his commission not only been false to his position but false to the facts of his own country Who would have thought that within forty years after the eyes of the immortal Lincoln were closed in martyred death amid the homage and adoration of this great and grateful land that within so brief a time the Ambassador of his country to the mother land would so far forget the dignified and delicate requirements of his high position as to thus stigmatize and vilify the honest followers and the exemplifiers of one of the first and dearest principles of the great emancipator? (Applause on the Republican side) When we ask our history for such an example it gives us back no answer We look in vain for such ignoble precedent It was reserved, in the fullness of time, for this period of calamities

Mr Speaker, no citizen of the United States claiming the protection of the American flag and enjoying the distinguished honor of representing this great Republic in any foreign court can be excused for publicly condemning either the principles of the followers of Abraham Lincoln, and he who does it should either be recalled for his imbecility, or censured for impudent misconduct, (Applause on the Republican side)

The House censured the Ambassador, and the people will censure again the party responsible for the Ambassador and other calamities which have resulted from Democratic rule, in the elections this fall.

A False Start

The Philadelphia North American says. The attempt to force a coalition between protection and free coinage of silver must be regarded as a false start. But as the free silver movement is a false view of finance, and as the Washington conference was undertaken in the sole interest of free silver, it is natural that the beginning of a new folly should be false and delusive Every man in this country is entitled to his opinions, and if properly expressed no reasonable person can think the worse of the person who cherishes the theory that fluids naturally flow from the low to the high level, or that a part of anything is greater than the whole. It is proper to remonstrate with such deluded persons, and to demonstrate the fallacy of their belief But beyond that no man is called to go If persons who are in favor of a protective tariff choose to make the free coinage of fifty cents worth of silver into a legal tender for twice its value, there is no law prohibiting it

But in the very nature of the case the number of persons who believe in a protective tariff and also in free coinage must be few And the rule is that men who hold to the one will, by the force of logic, be compelled to reject the other. The same economic law governs in both. The reason of protection is purely defensive Protection relates to the defence of our own labor and capital against the cheaper paid labor and the combined capital wielded by foreign producers It is necessary to hold up the wage rate through the encouragement of diversified industry and the highest encouragement to such industry must be had through the retention of the best market which is the home market The object being to maintain a remunerative wage rate the currency in which it is paid must be kept at the highest standard and by the highest standard we mean the standard we now have or that of the controlling commercial nations The prosperity of the men who work no less than that of the men who purchase labor or service in the open market will be in the exact ratio of the value of the money the one receives for his labor and the other for his product

There can therefore be no such alliance as is demanded by the free coinage men Free coinage at 16 to 1 and protection are incompatible. That the proposition should have been based on a deception was natural, if not inevitable That the dissent of the majority of the manufacturers from the plans of the prime movers in the affair should be suppressed ought not to have been unexpected The entire movement for free silver is false and hollow and, so far as Senators are concerned it is pure demagogism In doing business these wise men of the West demand the gold basis. They refuse to accept silver dollars in payment for the bullion sold to the government and they demand gold when they present treasury notes for redemption They at least are dishonest Their victims are only deceived

No Dry Docks

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Herald writes There will be no appropriation for dry docks in the Naval appropriation bill this year The Naval Committee by a vote of 8 to 4 decided to strike out the section providing for dry docks at New Orleans Mare Island and Portsmouth

[illegible] is thus left on terms of equal advantage with the other [illegible] and when appropriations are at last authorized the Charlestown Yard will have an opportunity to claim its fair share of attention Had it not been for the able presentation of the Boston case to the committee by Senator Lodge Mr McCall and other members of the Massachusetts delegation this agreeable result might not have been reached

When the clause was reached in committee this afternoon a motion was made to reconsider, and Mr Boutelle who [illegible] opposed to all appropriations for dry docks at this session suggested that if the case were to be reconsidered something ought to be done with reference to the strong statement made in behalf of the Charlestown Yard Some answer ought to be made to that appeal

In spite of the efforts of Mr Meyer of Louisiana who is responsible for the New Orleans appropriation, the committee quickly came to the conclusion that if any appropriations were made Boston certainly was entitled to some consideration and this conclusion having been reached it was soon made evident that with an appropriation for Charlestown added the amount would be swelled to a point where the House would probably reject the entire section Rather than load the bill down further therefore the committee decided to strike out the dry dock appropriations altogether

The Massachusetts delegation are quite satisfied with this result They have asked only that Charlestown should not be left out of any scheme for dry docks approved by Congress and they are not clamoring for an immediate appropriation when economy is so essential It should be said that the Massachusetts delegation have received the most valuable assistance from Chairman Boutelle

He has agreed with Secretary Herbert that the dry docks ought to wait until battle ships and torpedo boats will have been provided for He was strongly opposed to the idea of building a dock at New Orleans, where there is no navy yard and when that proposition carried, he had a provision for the Portsmouth yard and for Mare Island inserted solely in order to offset it The result now reached is due largely to his efforts

HARPER'S WEEKLY is a journal for the whole country It deals with the events of the world that are important to Americans

In carrying out this policy, in 1895, Julian Ralph visited China and Japan, and journeyed through the West, Richard Harding Davis took a trip through the Caribbean Sea, the evolutions of the new navy were described and illustrated by Rufus F. Zogbaum, Frederic Remington presented studies of Army and Frontier life, Poultney Bigelow attended the opening of the Kiel Canal.

In 1896 like attention will be given to every notable happening. The chief events in art, literature and music and the drama will be artistically presented. W. D. Howells, in the new department, Life and Letters, will discuss in his interesting way books and the social questions of the time. E S Martin's sprightly gossip of the Busy World will be continued The progress of the Transportation Commission around the World will be followed, and Caspar W. Whitney will conduct the department of amateur Sport.

In 1896 will occur a Presidential election. In its editorials and through its political cartoons the WEEKLY will continue to be an independent advocate of good government and sound money.

In fiction the WEEKLY will be especially strong. It will publish the only novel of the year by W. D. Howells, and a stirring serial of a Scotch feud, by S. R. Crockett. Spain in a Most Perilous Position.

Sir Julian Pauncefote Going to London—Other Foreign Matters.

Havana, March 24 —Spain with rebellion growing apace in Cuba tokens of coming revolution at home dangers of war with the United States exhausted credit and Cortes dissolved pending new elections is in a perilous position

Political leaders here who are well informed say that the crisis is not far off One of the Reformist party said yesterday "When Canovas succeeded Sagasta the Cuban rebellion was just begun and Sagasta, who was supported by the Fusionists offered him support in whatever war measures should be adopted to suppress the trouble But Canovas evidently lacking confidence in the support of Sagasta and the Fusionists who with the Republicans formed the majority in the Cortes and fearing a coalition with the Carlists and other dissatisfied factions for the purpose of crushing him [illegible] decided to dissolve the Cortes and with the government machinery at hand [illegible] [illegible]

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND

Has Had Emissary in Chicago Investigating Feeling on Currency Question

Chicago March 24 —A morning paper says President Cleveland has had a special emissary in Chicago for the past week investigating the true feeling on the currency question Calvin Tomkins secretary of the sound currency committee of the reform club of New York was the agent

Yesterday he left Chicago and then the local Democrats began to wonder why his mission had been kept so secret and his investigation made so thorough For several days Mr Tompkins has been calling on the Democratic leaders He told them frankly that he had come as the accredited agent of the President and that he was after confidential information regarding the real standard of sound money in Illinois. Mr Tomkins was accompanied by Mr Hentz, and as a rule they made calls upon the Democratic politicians together

Mr Tompkins told the Chicago men that President Cleveland in common with the leading Democrats of the east was convinced that Illinois would be the pivotal state over the money question in the coming Democratic National convention He told them that he had been informed by Colonel Wm R Morrison that Chicago held the key of this state and as Chicago went on the money question so Illinois would go.

While Mr Tompkins did not ask the Democrats to work for a declaration for a gold standard he urged that the Illinois state convention declare against the coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1 Before he left the city he is reported to have said that he was satisfied that the sound money men were in the majority if they would only make an aggressive fight at the polls

HERESY TRIAL

Of Rev. Wm T Brown, of Connecticut Begun

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 24.—The heresy trial of Rev. Wm. T. Brown, which began at Madison this morning is the theological sensation of the day in this state. The accused is charged by prominent members of his congregation with having attacked the fundamental doctrines of the congregational creed in his sermons during his pastorate which has occupied three years.

The charges, five in number which were drawn up by Rev. Dr. Blake of New London were submitted to a mutual council, which met in the Congregational church at Madison this morning. The council was a formidable theological body. It embraced the pastors of all the neighboring Congregational churches including three theologians of National reputation, Rev. Drs. M. Newman Smyth, J. T. Munger and W. R. Phillips of this city. Rev. D. M. James of Fair Haven was chosen as chairman of the council which sat in his judiciary capacity on the charges.

The alleged heretical teachings were listed under five heads as follows:

1—Rev. Dr. Wm. T. Brown does not hold the doctrine of the atonement as it is taught in the scriptures and as it is commonly held by evangelical congregational churches.

2—He does not accept the doctrine of the incarnation as taught by the bible and is commonly held by evangelical congregational churches.

3—He seems to deny the doctrine of the trinity as evangelical congregational churches hold it and understand the scriptures to teach it.

4—He minimizes if he does not deny the authority of the bible as evangelical congregational churches hold it.

5—This charge includes expressions attributed to him which tend to lead men to think lightly of the religion of the bible and of Christ as the Savior.

RENEWED PRESSURE

To Sell the Stock Market Tuesday.

NEW YORK, March 24.—Wall Street.—There was renewed pressure to sell the stock market this morning and still lower prices were recovered near 11 o'clock. London parted with about five thousand shares of St. Paul and Louisville and Nashville and local brokers who usually act for Cammack and Keene were liberal sellers of the grangers.

The revival of the report current last week that a commercial bank had been badly hurt by recent failures and which was denied at that time had an adverse influence. The rise in sterling exchange of ½c to 488 and 489 also assisted the bears. The decline in prices ranged from ¼ to 1⅛ per cent. Sugar fell 1⅛ to 115⅝.

Noon.—Money on call 3½; prime mercantile paper 5½@6; sterling exchange strong and actual business in bankers' bills at 487¼ for sixty days and 488¼ for demand. Posted rates are 488@489; commercial bills at 486½.

Clearing house statement: Exchanges, $112 261 839. Balances, $4,862 086. The bear movement in stocks made further progress after 11 especially in the industrials. Washington houses were prominent sellers of the active list and London also sold a little more St. Paul and Louisville & Nashville. Sugar declined to 114½. General electric to 34½; tobacco to 83½; leather preferred to 60½. Chicago gas to 63½; lead to 22 3-4. Cordage preferred to 8½ and ditto guaranteed to 17¼.

STARVATION

The Only Hope for the Most Fortunate Armenian—An Interesting Letter.

BOSTON, March 24.—"Armenia's Farewell" is the title of a document which a highly educated, a prominent and influential Armenian in Turkey has written. He has forwarded a translated copy of it to Boston.

We are evidently a doomed people, he says, a hundred thousand of us already butchered, more than half a million of us in extreme suffering from hunger and cold and nakedness. Multitudes beyond the reach of foreign aid must inevitably perish before spring. As to the rest of us to whom some little property or strength remains, our supplies of food and money are rapidly diminishing. We can prosecute no business, we are not at liberty to earn our daily bread.

For the most fortunate of us the future has only the hope of starvation. True, we are hearing the announcement that order and peace are being restored, but to us these are empty words. The terrible and wholesale massacre at Oorfa and Biredjik have occurred long subsequent to the most solemn and emphatic assurances that nothing more of the kind was to be apprehended—long after the commission sent out from Constantinople to carry the message of peace and reform to Armenia had reached its field of labor.

Massacres are not now as frequent as a few months ago but the attitude of relentless hostility on the part of the government toward us, the ferocious aspect of our Moslem neighbors has not a whit improved; still in their eyes we are as sheep waiting to be slaughtered and they seem to be eagerly watching the movements of European powers for an opportune moment in which to finish their bloody work and rid themselves forever of this troublesome demand for reform.

It seems extremely probable that the hour of our sacrifice is at hand. May we not then rightfully offer our farewell message to our fellow men.

To Our Moslem Countrymen

We desire to express our deepest gratitude to those who have sympathized with and helped us in these days of calamity and bloodshed. To those who have robbed and massacred us and plundered and burned our houses we have chiefly feelings of compassion. You have perhaps done these terrible things in what has seemed to you the service of our religion and government. No religion and no government can be really served but only injured by such means. Our wish and desire for you is that you may be speedily able to see what is the real work you have been doing.

To Our Sultan

Apparently you have been persuaded that we are a rebellious people deserving only utter and speedy extermination. We easily and fully recognize in what has occurred unmistakable signs of your will, your skill and vigilance as well as your vast power. For such as you this work of destruction is no doubt an easy one, the more so as we have had neither the means nor the disposition to resist it.

To the European Powers

We have not been an importunate nor a turbulent people. We did not incite the Crimean war nor any of the subsequent wars which have shaken this empire. We did not suggest the treaty that. It is not of our will that we were begotten to a new political life by the treaty of 1856.

Ever since the ice of massacre at Sassoun, we as a people have attempted to raise no political questions nor hitherto has Our complaints and appeals have been based solely on the sentiment of humanity and the common rights of man. It was you who arranged the Scheme of Reforms and urged it upon our sultan till he was irritated to the extent that he seems to have adopted the plan of ridding himself finally of this annoyance by exterminating us as a people and now while he is relentlessly carrying out this plan you are standing by as spectators and witnesses of this bloody work.

We wonder if sympathy and the brotherhood of man and chivalry are wholly things of the past or are the material and political interests dividing you so great that the massacre of a whole people is a secondary thing.

To Christians of America

Although we have cherished strong prejudices against your mission work among us recent events have proved that our Protestant brethren are one with us and have shared fully our anxieties and our perils. This has brought us very near to you and if there were any future for us we should prize your Christian love and the fellowship as never before but we are marked for destruction and can only bid you farewell.

A short year ago and nobody could have believed that at the end of this 19th century—a century characterized by the collapse of Islam and the advance of Christianity to a position of unquestioned supremacy in the government of the world—a Christian people could, on account of their loyalty to Christian civilization and under the very eyes of christendom be exterminated by a Mahometan power.

Yet just this fearful tragedy is being consummated today. Already hundreds of Armenian villages have been wiped out and in the larger towns and cities our people have been decimated, plundered, crushed.

We see no signs of relenting on the part of our destroyers and no hand is reached out to rescue them. We have only to say farewell to any who have loved and cared for us and prepare ourselves for the butcher's knife, honored in closing and sealing our national history of 40 centuries with our blood.

Androscoggin.

The dead body of a horse harnessed to a wagon, or what was left of it was found Sunday embedded in the ice on the banks of the Androscoggin, almost opposite what is known as the "Lower River" school house at Turner. The horse and wagon are thought to have belonged to Ruel Gordon, of Turner, and the finding of them to settle beyond a doubt, what for the past few weeks has generally been accepted as having been his fate. The Saturday night of the flood, at about seven o'clock, Gordon was known to have crossed the North Turner bridge and since then has not been seen or heard of. He was driving toward Lewiston and it was supposed had been caught by the swollen waters and carried down to his death. The horse and wagon, while not positively identified as his, resemble them so nearly that there is little doubt to whom they belonged, or what was the fate of the owner.

Aroostook

Caribou Republican: A liquor enforcement league is being talked of for Caribou, several of our citizens having expressed the desire for such an organization. It is expected that Hon. R. A. Shaw and others, of Houlton, will soon visit Caribou and organize a league similar to the one recently established in Fort Fairfield and which has been doing effective temperance work.

Wednesday morning a freight train of eighteen cars left Caribou via the B. & A. These cars were all loaded Tuesday, and Uhlrich Bros. used thirteen of them for railroad sleepers. This loading of thirteen cars in one day is quite a record even for this enterprising and successful firm. There are few towns in New England the size of Caribou that are enabled to send out eighteen carloads of freight in one day.

It is said that the very best quality of barley is grown on soil similar to that of Aroostook County and Land Agent Oak is sending samples of Aroostook barley to parties who may wish to make contracts for large quantities if the samples prove satisfactory and it is expected they will. It is hoped that a large demand for Aroostook barley may be created and thus give the farmers a paying market for another product of their farms.

The death of Mrs. V. Richard Foss whose husband died suddenly about three weeks ago, occurred at her home in Portland, Friday afternoon at four o'clock. She was ill of consumption at the time of Mr. Foss's death, which was a terrible shock to her, and she had failed steadily ever since. Five orphan children are left, the youngest but a babe. Mrs. Foss whose maiden name was Alice F. Pillsbury, was born in the town of Raymond forty one years ago.

The police raided a gambling establishment on Commercial street, Portland, Saturday, and arrested about a dozen men.

Much anxiety has been felt along the Presumpscot river in regard to the large jam of ice and lumber just above Pikham brook which is piled ten or twelve feet high and extends about one quarter of a mile up river. The owners of property above the Westbrook dam have placed a boom across the river as a measure of precaution.

Kennebec

The Kennebec river rose about sixteen inches Thursday night and Friday on account of the rains and thaw, not enough however to create any serious damage. The Edwards Manufacturing Company's mills were handicapped to some extent by the back water, but not seriously so. The turn in the weather and clearing away sufficed to calm the fears which had been aroused regarding another flood. The forty men who had been at work on the east end of the dam repairing the damage done by the recent flood, were compelled to quit work, on account of the rise in the water, it being sufficient to flow over the temporary flush boards which had been put in for the purpose of allowing the men to work. The damage to the dam has been found to be much more than was at first anticipated, the apron having been badly torn out, and it is thought that the repairs will cost $2 000 or $4 000, at least. In many cases the stones of the dam have been carried away but nothing serious will result from this unless a flood of extraordinary violence should come. There was a feeling of relief on the part of those who feared the results of a freshet on account of the jam down the river, as it is hoped that no more storms will come until there has been some channel made below. The little rise will, it is thought, be enough to carry away some of the jam, and thereby make it all the easier for the workers of the dynamite.

Plans have been drawn for a parsonage to be built by the Baptist society of Camden on the recently purchased lot on Belmont avenue, opposite W. E. Currier's. The society purposes to build as soon as the frost comes out of the ground, and the plan decided upon is that of a neat, tasteful and modern structure that will be an ornament to the vicinity.

The ship S. D. Carleton, of Rockport, Capt. Amesbury, from London, February 7th, for New York, arrived at Vineyard Haven, Sunday evening, having been blown from her course by heavy weather.

The Red Seal Company, of Rockland, is to remove to Lowell, Mass., immediately. The stock until recently held by local capitalists, has been bought up by Lowell, Boston and Philadelphia parties and the capital stock of $250,000 is already paid in. One of the largest individual stockholders of the new company will be Col. Charles H. Allen, of Lowell, who is widely known as an ex-Congressman and the man who ran for the Governorship against W. E. Russell.

Perry Bros., of Rockland, have sold the lime that was in their shed at the time of the fire to T. Snow. A large portion of the lime can be saved in a fair condition. The lime in the Crockett shed was much more exposed to the water than in the Perry shed and consequently much more slacked. This will probably not be fit for anything but fertilizer.

Washington

The following interesting incident is related by Mr. Charles Howe, of Portland. On the 14th of April, 1844, it snowed for 24 hours, and down in Cherryfield where he then was, there fell fourteen inches of snow on a level. The next morning he started on the mail stage for Bucksport. There were four of them and they had a two seated pung and four horses. For the first seven miles they repeatedly got stuck in the drifts, and had to shove the pung. It was a very hot day and by noon the snow was melting into streams and rivulets. As they got over toward Bucksport they found that there had been a smaller fall of snow and the hot sun soon melted what there was so that the last seven miles into Bucksport were made on wheels.

Rev. Joshua S. Gay, of Biddeford, a retired Orthodox clergyman, died at his home, Sunday, aged 77. He was born in Stoughton, Mass., the son of Rev. E. Gay. He graduated from Amherst College in 1841, and from the Andover Theological School in 1845. The next two years he was pastor of the First Congregational church at Biddeford. He held various pastorates in New England, having been in active ministerial work till 1891, when an attack of paralysis caused his retirement. He leaves a wife, three sons and a brother, Rev. E. Gay, pastor of St. Peter's church, Fernandina, Fla.

Since an unfortunate citizen who kept his money under his pillow, lost his savings of $500 in a fire which burnt house, bed and greenbacks, there is much talk at Sanford about having a bank in town.

THE COMING MAN is the gentleman who goes to the Keeley Cure and has his system cleansed and purified and restored to a healthful condition, thereby preparing himself to fill important positions in the busy marts of the world. The Keeley treatment as administered at Deering, Maine, has resulted in many men procuring lucrative and honorable positions, hence this is a very valuable consideration to those contemplating taking the cure. nov21

CITY AND VICINITY.

Next week is Holy week. Easter Sunday comes April 5th.

Col. G. A. Philbrook, of the 2nd regiment of the Maine National Guard, says that the various companies under his command are doing excellent work and all are evincing a desire to be at the head of the list when the annual State encampment come off. It is only four months before muster time. Col. Philbrook says that the members of the companies who live in the coast towns have already commenced doing work in the range, and good results are being obtained. The colonel thinks that this year's muster will be a greater success than ever. Each year the men are becoming more advanced and there will be lots of hustling this year at the encampment for the individual and company prizes. This is an incentive for the soldiers to do better work.

Fire at Brunswick

A Brunswick correspondent writes: A fire Tuesday morning at 3 30 A. M., destroyed a small house owned by Charles DeMarais, Jr., and a large two story frame dwelling owned by Charles DeMarais. The insurance was $300 on the smaller one and $2,000 on the larger. The smaller house was not inhabited, this being the second time a fire has taken place in the same house since Wednesday and the family had moved out three days ago to a farm at Hillside. In the large house were two families, a Mrs. Wilson with two children, and Mrs. Pike and seven children. The hydrant being frozen caused some delay but the fire was confined to the two structures and neighboring houses were saved.

High School Notes.

A mass meeting of the scholars will be held to-day at the close of the forenoon session for the purpose of seeing if a sufficient amount of money can be obtained to secure a trainer for the track and field athletic team who shall take charge of the team about three weeks before the M. I. S. A. A. meet. It is very important that the team should have a trainer for a considerable length of time and the action of the scholars to-day will doubtless be entirely favorable.

At the last meeting of the M. I. S. A. A. the deciding of the championship for '95 was left to a committee of three, the Bangor boys to select a lawyer from Portland and the Portland boys a lawyer from Bangor, those two to select the third. At a meeting of the High School Association Gilman, Jordan and Houlihan were elected to choose the Portland lawyer. The committee must report to the president of the M. I. S. A. A. before April 10th.

The members of the senior class have made final arrangements for their comedy, "My Lord in Livery." The cast of characters will be as follows: Lord Thilmore, D. I. Snow; Spiggot, family butler, Geo. Races at Pittsfield and Fairfield

Walter G. Morrill, of Pittsfield, announces that races will be held at Fairfield, June 1 and July 4 and at Pittsfield June 11 and July 4, the events to be announced later. In the August meeting $1,100 will be offered in stakes. The races will take place at Fairfield Tuesday, August 11th, No. 1, 3 minute class trot and pace, stake $100; at Pittsfield Friday, August 14, No. 1, 2 25 class trot and pace, stake $400 and Saturday August 15th, No. 3, 2 20 class, trot and pace, stake, $300. No. 2, 2 30 class trot and pace, stake $100. Entries close May 1.

These tracks are only nineteen miles apart with good railroad communications. The stakes last year proved very successful to all concerned. In addition to above stakes liberal purses will be offered for all other classes at the August meeting to be announced later.

IT has been held that consumption is hereditary, and the fact that one person of a family had died with consumption was considered a sure sign that others of that family could not escape it. This is partly true and partly untrue. A man with weak lungs is likely to transmit that weakness to his children. But there is no reason in the world why the weakness should be allowed to develop. There is no reason why the lungs should remain weak. Weak lungs predispose a child to consumption. They provide a place for germs to settle. That is all that is necessary. Once let the germs of disease gain a foot hold and they increase with a deadly rapidity. Pretty soon the blood is full of them and so loses its healthfulness and its strength-giving qualities. If the weakness is in some other organ the disease will show itself in that organ. The germs will get into the blood just the same and the body will begin to lose strength. We speak particularly of consumption because it is most common—because it causes more than one sixth of all deaths in the world.

If there is a weak and crumbly spot in the foundation of a house [illegible] out the decaying material [illegible] new strong stuff. That's all [illegible] to do. That's all that's necessary.

That is exactly the thing to do with the lungs. Keep them full of rich red wholesome blood and the weakness will disappear. Decaying tissues will be thrown off and new material will [illegible] lungs are well and perfectly strong again. This is the thing that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does. This is what makes it cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption when it is taken according to directions. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be in the body. It exterminates them [illegible] and forces them out of the system. It supplies the blood with the rich [illegible] It makes the appetite good, digestion perfect. There will be a meeting of Republicans on Wednesday, March 25th, in City Hall, at 7.30 o'clock to hear the report of the committee and complete the organization of the club. It is earnestly requested that all who desire to become members of the club be present at this meeting and sign the constitution which will be presented. Those who sign the constitution at this meeting will become charter members of the club and participate in its organization.

Most of the bridges carried away in the State by the late freshets will be rebuilt this year. The old bridge between Fairfield and Benton will be replaced by a $12,000 steel bridge.

Mr. Wales V. L. Dunbar, who has been bookkeeper for T. R. Savage & Co., for several years, has resigned his position to take effect April 1st. Mr. Dunbar will engage in other business.

This evening Queen City division, No. 50, S. of T., will meet at its hall in Granite building, for the purpose of electing officers for the following quarter, and also to transact other business.

The afternoon tea and entertainment which was to have been given by the Woman's Aid of Grace church Thursday afternoon and evening is postponed on account of the death of Mr. Samuel Lowe.

A sale of useful household articles will be held at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Porter, 73 Essex street, this afternoon. A full attendance is desired as the ladies have a large stock of goods on hand which they will offer for sale at low prices. Tea will be served during the afternoon.

Mr. W. H. Sailey, of the White Store, has made some improvements at his store, by rearranging the tables in the form of a hollow square. A counter has been added for the display of goods while being shown to customers and all the departments have been prepared for the spring trade.

Next Saturday will be a gala day for the Sons of Veterans at Bucksport, as it is the first anniversary of P. P. Gilmore Camp No. 33, when they will entertain the Camp from Winterport. There will be candidates to initiate, after which supper will be served and a time given to after dinner speeches.

The annual meeting of the Penobscot River Dam and Improvement Company for the election of officers and the transaction of such business as may come before the meeting, will be held at the office of the treasurer of the company, No. 94 Exchange street, on Tuesday, the thirty-first inst., at 11 o'clock A. M.

The New England supper to be given this evening at the Columbia street vestries will be a most attractive occasion and to concert to follow will be a fine one. Madame Desprez, little Carrie White, Mr. W. A. Gordon and Mrs. F. H. Chase are among the talent. Miss Kittie Merrill, the young cornetist, will also play and there will doubtless be a large attendance.

The ways in which electricity shows itself the friend of mankind, in those days, are legion. A Cherryfield woman who got a piece of broken needle in her hand last week, instead of going to a surgeon, went to the electric light station, where the superintendent promptly drew out the offending bit of steel with powerful electro-magnet which he improvised for the occasion, connecting it with the small dynamo.

The Waldo County Veteran Association met with Warren Post recently. On account of the storm the attendance was small. O. C. Clifford presided over the meeting, the president being absent. The committee on time and place of next meeting appointed the time June 4, with Warren Post, Winterport. O. C. Clifford was appointed to deliver the address of welcome, and President Dawson to respond. After recitations, dialogues and remarks by comrades present the meeting closed.

Jonesport is one of the most thriving of the Maine coast towns. Of the 2,100 inhabitants of the town, about 1,600 live in the villages. About 55 vessels are owned there, nearly 20 of the Jonesport captains being in the West India trade. About 500 barrels of clam bait will be sent from there, and on the average about 2,000 lobsters are taken from there during the week, and as the fishermen are selling them for 21 cents each, they are making good money. While most of the schooners have been laid up for the winter, some have hardly missed a trip.

A new and handsome car has been placed upon the Bucksport run of the Maine Central. It is a vestibule combination smoking, baggage and mail car and is said to have been one of several exhibited at the World's Fair by the Pullman company. The smoking section is finely furnished in quartered oak, with seats in olive plush and cherry, and will seat 36 people. The baggage room is in the middle of the car and has two six foot doors. The mail room is furnished in ash and cherry and has all of the latest fixtures. The car is fitted for gas, has the patent air brake and the automatic danger signal. Its use on the Bucksport branch will do away with the regular smoking car.

Hon. P. O. Vickery, of Augusta, president of the Maine Sportsmen's Fish and Game Association, has returned from New York where he attended the Sportsmen's exposition at Madison Square Garden and he says the affair was a great success in every sense of the word. Maine did herself proud. In fact, the attraction for all eyes was the exhibit from the Pine Tree State. Specimens of every kind of game were shown, being brought to New York by S. L. Crosby, the well known Bangor taxidermist. "But the live fish there on exhibition pleased the visitors," said Mr. Vickery. "There were three large tanks of trout, which ranged in weight from one-quarter to seven pounds. There was also a tank of land-locked salmon in which were six salmon from 3½ to 8½ pounds in weight. Miss C. T. Crosby, of Phillips, had charge of the exhibit, and she performed her duties with great ability and was the observed of all observers during the week. Several guides were also present. Taken all in all the affair was a great success and clearly demonstrates that Maine is the best State in the Union for the hunters and fishermen to come and spend their vacations."

Many towns show a reduction of their liabilities the past year. A few have got out of debt entirely and some find a surplus in the treasury.

The steamer Sedgwick which has been hauled up at Bucksport will be launched this week and put in readiness for the summer business between Bangor and Bar Harbor.

These changes in the postal service in Maine are announced: Route 1,567. Railroad Station (n. o.) to Calais. From March 19, 1896, reduce service to six times a week.

The promised reopening of the Houlton machine shops is good news. In this case the defalcation threw a large crew out of work and shut down the whole business for a year.

Prayers were held at the Home for Aged Women Tuesday afternoon by Rev. B. B. Merrill, of Brewer, over the remains of Mrs. Sarah P. Ryder, after which the remains were removed to Brewer where further services were held. Deacon Snow had charge of the arrangements.

There is talk of establishing in this city a school for the instruction of ladies in bicycling and it will be started immediately, in Y. M. C. A. Hall probably, if sufficient encouragement is given. A young lady now residing in Bangor, who has had much experience in wheeling, will have charge if the plan is carried out. Those who wish to take such instruction can leave their names with Mr. E. H. Dakin during his bicycle exhibition which begins at the Y. M. C. A. building today.

Mr. A. H. Stevens' house at East Jackson was destroyed by fire recently. Mrs. Stevens went up in the open chamber in the evening after clothes and slipped, dropping the lamp which she carried. The lamp exploded, and in a few seconds the house was in a blaze. In spite of the terrible storm several neighbors succeeded in saving a part of the furniture. Mr. Stevens' loss was quite severe, as he purchased his house only a few months ago. He lost 16 dozen ready-made gloves, all the dishes, chamber-sets, stoves, the greater part of their clothing, and $26 in money.

The annual meeting of the Passadumkeag Log Driving Company was held at the office of the company, Room 6, Exchange block, Tuesday afternoon at 10 o'clock and the following officers were elected for the coming year: Lester Dwinel, of Bangor, president; S. H. Boardman, of Bangor, clerk and treasurer; G. B. Page, of Burlington, A. C. Page, of Passadumkeag, Geo. P. Gilman, of Orono, and L. A. Buzzell, of Oldtown, directors. It was voted to have two drives this year. The first drive will include the logs below Nicatous stream and those above Grand Falls. This drive was let to George P. Gilman, of Orono, for 45 cents below Nicatous stream and 25 cents above Grand Falls. L. A. Buzzell, of Oldtown, bid off the second drive, which includes the logs from Nicatous dam for 60 cents.

"The outlook for a prosperous season for Maine's fish and game is first rate," says Col. E. C. Farrington, secretary of the Maine Sportsmen's Fish and Game Association. "The lakes will open early this year, and many hundreds of sportsmen will be attracted to the State, leaving barrels of money and thereby pleasing everyone. Affairs of the Maine Sportsmen's Fish and Game Association are in a most satisfactory state. Citizens are allowed to take all the fish that they desire from the first of May until the first of October, provided they are for their own use. The limit, however, is 25 pounds. The big game season opens in October and continues until January, and during those three months many hundred deer and other animals are pulled down by the man with a rifle. Yet there is a limit. The woodcock and duck shooting season opens September 1 and the partridge September 20. I predict a good season for all those interested in the preservation of Maine's fish and game for the sport itself."

An exchange tells a story about a Methodist parson in eastern Maine, who called at the home of a deacon on his way to church and requested the loan of his crowbar. The deacon naturally inquired what the pastor was going to do with a crowbar on the Sabbath. "Why," he replied, looking grave and serious, "you know we are to try and raise funds to extinguish the church debt today, and I intend using the bar as a lever." At this he shouldered the iron and strode off to church. The good deacon soon followed, telling the neighbors on the way of the minister's strange conduct and hinting at a probably unbalanced mind. As a result everybody went to church that day—the house was literally crammed. During the sermon the crowbar lay across the chancel-rail in full view of the congregation. At the right moment the minister drew from its place of concealment behind the pulpit a peck basket and hung it on the end of the bar toward the congregation. He then made an eloquent plea for contributions sufficient to balance the bar across the rail. Men and women vied with one another in their efforts to tip the bar, putting every available sort of collateral in the basket. A man named Stone who had left his funds at home, went out to the street and got a two pound boulder which he labeled, "Wm. Stone, $5.00," and put it in. Still the crowbar failed to tip. To cut the story short, the debt was more than liquidated and although the novel weighing machine was not balanced, there was a handsome balance left to the credit of the church.

Impoverished blood causes that tired feeling. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood and gives vigor and vitality. 2

The High School Oracle for March appeared yesterday. It contains much of interest in its different departments.

The Municipal Officers will meet today at 4 P. M. to draw jurors for the April term of the Supreme Judicial Court and to confirm the appointment of assistant assessors.

Oriental Lodge of Odd Fellows will give an entertainment, supper and dance this evening at Odd Fellows' Hall and a pleasant time is assured. Odd Fellows and their families are invited.

A good sized dog belonging to a Bangor man attempted to bite several people on the streets yesterday and the matter was reported to the police with the result that the animal will be killed as he is regarded as dangerous.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Lucy L. Dickey was held yesterday at the residence of Mr. James H. Snow, on Ohio street, and many friends were present. The floral offerings were beautiful and profuse. Rev. Henry L. Griffin, pastor of the Hammond Street church, officiated. Maj. William Z. Clayton had charge of the arrangements. The interment was at Mt. Hope.

That Maine receives a big revenue from summer visitors there can be no dispute. It has been stated that the total amount received foots up $10,000,000 annually. That is a very large sum, and seems to many a little too big for credence, but one-half of that amount is sufficiently high. Maine is really a paradise for summer tourists, and thousands of them are drawn to the State by the salubrity of its climate, and by its unsurpassed attractions.

The Monday night whist club, of this city, had its closing meeting of the season last night. The party went to Hawes' hall, Orono, by electric cars and passed the evening there very enjoyably. Dancing was the principal feature of the occasion and it was finely appreciated. Messrs. Carver and Stone furnished music. Those who desired played cards and refreshments were served during the evening. The members of the club arrived home about 12.30 o'clock well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

As Mr. James A. Swett was driving in West Market Square yesterday forenoon, his horse, which had suddenly started ahead, being frightened at something, struck a baby carriage containing the baby of Mrs. Johnson, who resides on North Pearl street, and propelled by her, throwing out the baby and knocking Mrs. Johnson down. As soon as Mr. Swett could stop his horse he at once drove off for a physician and brought him to the cashier's room in Fickett's market, where mother and child had meanwhile been cared for. The physician examined the child and found bruises on one side of the head. Mrs. Jones was bruised on the side and hip. Both were taken home at once. Mr. Swett was not at all to blame in the matter, as it was purely accidental.

The Late Mr. Samuel Lowe.

Prayers will be held over the remains of the late Mr. Samuel Lowe to-day at the family residence on First street at 3 P. M. The remains will be interred in the family lot at Argyle and further services will be held there at 10 A. M. Thursday. Mr. Lowe, whose death was announced in yesterday's WHIG, had been prominently connected with the lumbering interests in this section for thirty years. Previous to that time he made two trips to California, the first one in 1852, when he remained five years. He then returned to Maine and in 1861 he again went to California, this time for three years. He was engaged in mining there and was successful.

After returning from California the second time he began running logs at the Sunkhaze boom and carried on that line of work for some time. Afterwards he bought out Paul Dudley, who was in the same business at Sunkhaze, and since that time had been engaged in the rafting of and caring for the logs there.

Mr. Lowe, soon after getting control of the business at the boom, took in Mr. W. Maxfield, of this city, as a partner and for the past 15 years or more the firm name has been Lowe, Maxfield & Co.

Mr. Lowe moved to Bangor from Corrigan several years ago. The deceased was highly esteemed for his high character and honorable dealings. Mr. Lowe leaves a widow and four children, two daughters and two sons, to mourn his loss and they will have the deep sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

Bangor Bicycle Show.

The Bangor Bicycle Company will give an exhibition of bicycles at the Y. M. C. A. building beginning to-day at 2 P. M. and continuing through Friday, the hours being from 2 to 10 P. M., and a large number of our people who are interested in the wheel will undoubtedly take advantage of the opportunity to see a fine line of wheels. Mr. E. H. Dakin attended the New York exhibition and obtained quite a number of the attractions for the Bangor show.

Over fifty bicycles, tandems and quads will be on exhibition, including the celebrated Stearns sextuplet, the Wolf-American duplex, the latest invention, the Hardy suspension bicycle; also exhibits by the New Departure Bell Company, Standard Cyclometer Company, Hartford Rubber Works, and all the leading bicycle sundries.

The exhibition will be worth coming miles to see. Tickets can be obtained at Fowler's drug store and at the office of the Bangor Bicycle Co., 117 Exchange street.

Mr. Rogers, the wheelman referred to in yesterday's WHIG, will be present and will give visitors the benefit of his extensive fund of bicycle knowledge.

A course of Hood's Sarsaparilla this spring may be the means of keeping you well and hearty all summer. 7

MEMBERS' SOCIAL
And Presentation of Medals at the Y. M. C. A.

The members' social at the Y. M. C. A. building last evening was an enjoyable and interesting occasion with a large number, including lady friends, in attendance. After a short time passed in conversation the following musical and literary programme was pleasingly presented:

Piano Solo	Edward Larsen
Reading	Miss Blanche Fogg
Solo	Miss Helene McQuinn
Harmonica Solo	Miss Whitten
Reading	Miss Fogg
Solo	Miss Helene McQuinn

The awarding of medals won in the recent bowling contest was next on the programme, the presentations being made by Physical Director Bass.

The medals were given to Champion White, who made the best individual score; to McCann, who scored second, and to the High School team which led the team contest, composed of the following men: Snow, McCann, Jacques, Burke, Sprague. The Y. M. C. A. team, winning second team score, was presented with stick pins. This team was made up thus: Flynn, Soney, Wheelden, Glass and Physical Director Bass.

Mr. Fred Flynn gave an interesting and skillful pantomime entitled "The Woman and the Mouse." Refreshments of cake and coffee were served and the remainder of the time was passed socially. The Baptist young people had charge of all the arrangements for the occasion.

The Seminary Bond Lectures.

These lectures will be given this year by Rev. Newman Smythe, D. D., of New Haven, Conn., beginning next week Tuesday. The general topic of the lectures will be "The Christian Ministry and Social Problems." They will be eight in number and will be delivered in the Seminary Chapel at 7.30 on the evenings of March 31, April 2, 3, 14, 16, 17, 21, 23. Dr. Smythe is so well known among us that it is unnecessary to introduce him to our Seminary constituency and friends. The subject is one that has had a practical interest for the lecturer, and he will undoubtedly give the results of his personal experience. A cordial invitation to attend these lectures is extended to all who may be interested in them.

Amusement Notes.

Coming attractions at the Opera House are as follows: Hoyts' "A Midnight Bell," "One of the Bravest," "The New South" (original cast), Joe Ott, "The Old Homestead," Sousa's Band, "The Black Crook."

"There is one thing about Fanny Davenport," says Manager Ben Stern, "she is the kindest and most considerate of actresses to the stage folk; she is willing to spend her money for them, and she is willing to help them. The people in her company who wish to succeed are encouraged and assisted by her, and she has never been envious of another actress, or acted meanly to one. She does her work and does it well, loves and is loyal to her own people, and deserves to be happy."

Emma Eames has made the great success of her artistic career in Verdi's "Othello," at the Monte Carlo Theatre. As has been stated, Mme. Eames refused several important engagements in order to devote her entire time to serious study. She passed the winter in Paris studying the finesse and perfections of voice and song with the celebrated Prof. Trabadelo, of whom so many great artistes have taken or are taking lessons. Trabadelo had promised to make Emma Eames the leading dramatic artist of the day, and as he does not speak lightly on such matters curiosity was piqued, and the success was a great triumph. Critics find in the artist a wonderful development of voice, and above all, a phrasing warm and full of emotion, which electrified the audience. Almost every effort of the singer was followed by great applause. Recalls, encores and flowers were generously bestowed.

Board Bulletin.

Secretary McKeen has just issued Board of Agriculture Bulletin No. 1, a live stock number, for April, as follows:

Again the Board comes to you for your valuable assistance in working up matter for our Bulletins. It is our purpose to make those of 1896 superior in every way to those which have been published in former years, and we ask your earnest co-operation in doing so. We shall take up the growing crops in their season, but this Bulletin must be made a forerunner for 1896, and we wish to embody in it the results of experiences gained since our last issue as well as plans for the future. We shall endeavor to answer all questions as fully as possible, and again urge our correspondents to forward any which they may wish answered. If we are unable to do so ourselves, they will be submitted to someone who can answer from a practical or scientific standpoint. We make this the stock feeding number and ask you to give the results you may have obtained from any new systems of feeding, or with new feeds, as well as your regular feeds. Let us also discuss some questions relating to the future work of the season in feed and stable.

Please place answers to the regular questions in spaces left for them, leaving the space below for your remarks.

1. Give number and value of farm stock as compared with last year.
2. Give amount of stock fodder on hand in your vicinity as compared with last year at this time.
3. What improvements have been made in your vicinity in wintering farm animals?
4. Give methods of watering, whether or not they are watered in the barn, and what proportions; whether once or twice.
5. Have you practiced warming water for stock in winter, or noticed it being done by others, and if so what was the result?
6. In your judgment do milch cows need exercise in winter, and if so how should it be secured?
7. Will the quantity of corn grown this year be increased and if so what varieties, and how will it be harvested and cured?
8. Have any in your vicinity fed ensilage for the first time the past winter, and if so what crop was used and how were they pleased with it?
9. Give amount of fall plowing as compared with former years?

Will you please give this matter your careful attention and return your answers to this office on or before April 1st.

THE WAY TO GET THERE.

To get there, young fellow, the way that is best,
The method of methods, the World has confessed,
Is to roll there on rollers, to skate there on wheels
With the balance of power all confined to the heels.
But if you are tired and you cannot tell why,
If your liver is wrong, and the breath of your sigh
Is the weary complainings of lungs that are sore,
And the remedy used doesn't seem to restore;
If ghastly consumption, grim, leering and wild,
The unyielding fountain of health hath defiled
Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will put An end to your troubles.

It's not like the sarsaparillas or ordinary Spring medicines. They claim to do good in March, April and May. All the year round, and in all cases, the "Discovery" purifies the blood as nothing else can. Every blood-taint and disorder, Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, Tumors and Swellings—the most stubborn Skin and Scalp Diseases, and the worst forms of Scrofula, are completely and permanently cured by it.

Buy of reliable dealers. With any others, something else that pays them better will probably be urged as "just as good." It may be, for them; but it can't be, for you.

THE OLDTOWN ELECTION.
Recount of Votes Tuesday—Two Votes Thrown Out Monday Claimed by Republicans—Matter to be Definitely Settled To-day.

It will be rememberd that the result of the Oldtown election Monday was announced as in favor of E. T. Hartwell, Democrat, by one majority. Yesterday the city government made a recount of the votes and the work required the entire day, every vote being gone over with care.

The Republicans were represented by J. F. Gould, Esq., and the Democrats by George T. Sewall, Esq. Two votes for the Republican candidate, Hon. E. B. Weeks, were found which had been thrown out in the count of Monday as defective, but which the Republicans claimed should have been counted for Mr. Weeks. This claim was opposed by the Democrats. The matter will probably be settled to-day and a certificate issued to the one who is decided upon as having been elected mayor.

Inter-Collegiate Debating League.

Mr. Milliken will not be able to debate in the coming meeting of Bates with Boston University, because of poor health, and Mr. Cutts of the same class has been appointed to fill his place. The selection was originally made for the debate with Colby University by a committee, and it was thought that the three men picked out were the strongest that could be found, and the result of the contest with Colby proved that the committee made a wise selection. The faculty have picked out the next best man to Milliken, and the college feel that they need have no misgivings in the coming oratorical trial with Boston University.

A Tufts College man writes to an exchange as follows:

Reading in the Boston Herald of the 20th a communication from Lewiston to the effect that Tufts had forfeited to Bates in the contest scheduled in the New England Inter-Collegiate Debating League, we beg a word of explanation. Tufts has not only not forfeited a debate, but has never consented to being scheduled in the league. Not being represented in the executive committee meeting of the league, the first that Tufts heard of being scheduled to debate against the winner of the Bates-Colby contest was when the report appeared in the newspapers. Tufts at once protested against being scheduled in the league. Instead of recognizing this protest, it now appears that the president of the league sent the schedule to Bates, so that she, on winning the contest against Colby expected to compete with Tufts. Tufts in the meantime voted not to enter the league. How Bates could take this action as a discourtesy to herself or in any way interpret it as a forfeit, it is not easy to see.
